“ Sending prayers and hugs for Amanda’s Family and friends. Amanda was “sweet and somewhat spunky” at times. She lived life for what it was to her and I’m praying that you can understand God’s timing for asking her to come home so soon to be with him.

“ I am so very sorry to hear of Amanda's passing. I worked with her at DSV and took an immediate liking to her. Such a sweet young woman. We'd talk about stuff and she always talked about her Mom and her her ol' man. Y'all were her main focus! Talked about her travels too. She had a very infectious smile that would light up a room. I pray for the Lord to comfort y'all, as only HE can.

“ Amanda was my best friend in life we spent 9 years beside each through thick and thin, I know in my heart that she loved everyone and was loved back. She was my rock and I was hers . We always had a side joke of Bonnie and Clyde in our adventures. She took an adventure and never returned and she is in gods hands with her dad. I loved her to the moon and back and would do anything to make her smile and I know she in a better place now I miss her so much and I will see her again in the after life.

“ I miss you already. You were the sweetest person i knew. We had good times and bad but there was never a day that went by i didnt think of you. Im so gald God gave me those last days with you. I will never forget them . you were always my little sister. I dont know how im going to fill the loss in my heart. I have wasted sometime with you because of a mistake . I guess thats what hurts me the most. But God did guide us back together. And now you are gone . cant say im sorry cant take back all the hurt and pain we have shared. But im thankful for the little time we had to spend together. You looked so happy that day. I have seen amanda light up as much as she did that last day. She was doing the things that she use to do. She finally had her family back together and my little sister was happy that day. I will never forget you .you will always be with me . you will never be forgotten. Rip my little sister Amanda Storey. We love you so much.
