

Annie Laura Martin

September 3, 1922 - June 12, 2015

Annie Laura Addy Martin, 92, died Friday, June 12, 2015 at Saluda Nursing Center.

Born in Lexington County and a daughter of the late Carroll Eugene and Nezzie Gertrude Hendrix Addy, she was the wife of the late James C. Martin. During World War II she became a welder to help with the war effort. She later helped her husband manage Martin's Grocery Store and was a homemaker. Mrs. Martin was a member of Mt. Pleasant Lutheran Church.

A loving mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, Mrs. Martin is survived by a daughter and son in-law, Susan and Gene Trotter of Saluda, a brother, Carroll E. Addy, a sister, Patricia Risinger, four grandchildren, Matthew Trotter (Leigh), Michael Trotter (Jessica), Britt Trotter and Mary Beth Schumpert (Will) and four great-grandchildren, Harley, McKlain, Westin and Addy Grace.

A Graveside service will be held 6 p.m., Sunday, June 14, 2015 at Travis Park Cemetery with Rev. Jim Glander officiating.

“ Susan, We are so sad to hear of your Mother's passing. We wish we had gone to see her one more time. We had fallen in love with her when Mrs. Berry was in SNC also. We know she is in a much better place of peace. She was such a special lady. Your memories and knowing the person she was will help get you through some of the sadness. We feel your pain.
