“ Aunt pee wee was a sweet lady I had. Went to see her a few times . Since I moved back home I wish I had more time. The times I talk to her she always talked about she was ready to be with her husband Earl and now she is with him . And my dad and mom. So you all have a party up there in heaven I will be there one day beside all of you.. Bless you aunt pee wee for all you have done for people in this world down here I know it beautiful there. Always love your niece Linda cockrell currence.
