“ I really can't believe you are gone. I hate myself for getting so busy with my everyday life that I lost contact with you. You was always so funny. You had the biggest heart of anyone I know. You was a great nurse and an even better friend. I love you and I'll never forget you. I pray Gods peace on your precious children and your family. You are no longer in pain my friend so fly high a look after us until we meet again. Xoxo
