“ *The Clifford I knew was always quick to express his joy and appreciation over the little things in life. Things like watching a beautiful sunset, participating in goofy, full-filled July 4th parades at Alligator Point, enjoying a riverboat dinner-cruise on St. Marks (he talked about that forever), and showering outdoors at the Paschal's beach place, just to name a few. Also, I'm told by lots of folks that Clifford sang a mighty fine rendition of "Hello Darlin" by Conway Twitty - sadly I never got to see him perform, but the legend will live on. “ Loved him to pieces and always happy to see him. He was fun to be around, full of stories, smiles, laughs and hugs. He was handsome and charming and had such a soothing voice. I know there will be a big empty space where his beautiful spirit seemed to fill a room whenever he entered. I know my Dad has welcomed him to Heaven along with all the other loved ones we have lost. May memories of good times bring comfort and soften the grief. Love to you all❤️
