“ Linda and family, I was so sad to hear of David's passing. He was always smiling and funny. I will never forget he, Ann and Elsie entertaining us at the class reunion with their skit from “O, Brother, Where Art Thou”...it was hilarious. I also appreciate you both coming to my mother's funeral and the nice conversation we had there. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Much love, Barbara Keisler Bishop “ David was such a warm and loving person. He always had a big friendly smile, eager to tell you how much he loved you, and shared genuine concern if he thought you were down. He loved the Lord and his family with all his heart. He will be sooo missed by everyone. I cherish the time we had and will work to keep alive the Jute plant he gave me two weeks ago (a clipping of his mom's plant, Kathryn Padgett). Love to all.
