“ I hated to hear this news more for those of us who loved her so.... and do still.. I will never forget how special she could make you feel and her capacity to love so unconditionally.. I will always cherish our talks we had about things when i just needed that friend who always understands.. I loved spending Halloweens with her giving out candy and watching movies. Although my heart is sad with you not here, Miss Edelphia, I know Heaven is somehow sweeter with you being there...Love you, and will see you again some day..Love, Charles...
