

Fairey Louise Black

November 15, 1919 - April 27, 2020

Fairey Louise Black, 100, of Prosperity, S.C. (Saluda County), only child of Javas Monroe and Margaret "Maggie" Ella Fairey Black, widow of James Eric Black, died April 27, 2020 at Generations of Batesburg, S.C. She was born in the East Orange section of Orangeburg County, November 15, 1919. She attended Columbia College and Newberry College, class of 1940, and was bookkeeper for her husband's business, Black's Radio and TV, on Main Street of Newberry, S.C. for 50+ years. She was the oldest member of Corinth Evangelical Lutheran Church, the WELCA group, and a former member of St. Mark Lutheran Church. She was also the oldest member of the Corinth-St. Mark's parish. During her prime, she was the state facilitator of the WELCA Phobe Project and worked on other committees on the state level. She was an avid 66 year member of the Order of the Eastern Star, having served as Worthy Matron, Grand Representative of Kentucky in SC, organist, and secretary, travelling extensively to attend meetings across the state and nation. She was a resident at Generations III of Batesburg. Appreciation is expressed to the staff of Generations III of Batesburg, Dr. John Thompson, Dr. McCloy, and All Seasons Hospice.

Surviving are a daughter and loyal son-in-law, Ralph and Marilyn Black Grant; 3 grandchildren: James Hilery (Debbie) Grant of Waxhaw, N.C., Susan Louraen G.
