“ Nanny, I know how hard the last several months have been with this pandemic keeping you locked in and away from the ones you love. Not being able to see all of the ones who kept you fighting and strong resulted in such a loss for us. I know how strong you were and for you to just give up I knew then you were tired. I know in my heart you will always be with me. I have so many of your traits and for that I know it will be hard but I will be ok! Mikey and Maddie love you so much and will cherish all the sweet moments we all shared together! This isn't goodbye but a see you later, because I know we will meet again! I love you so much! Love your Ashley Bugg
