“ Frankie was a “one-of-kind” friend and professional. You are in our prayers. May God grant you peace and comfort as you celebrate the home going of your loving mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. She blessed many. She will be missed, but just know your memories of her will endure a lifetime. Be blessed, Norman (former co-worker) & Irene Singletary

“ I remember Frankie from when my family attended Epworth Methodist Church. To me, Frankie and my Mother, Lillian Lewis looked so much alike that they could have been sisters. Cindy, I didn't realize that your daughter-in-law was related to Frankie. I am so sorry for your loss. I was so very sad to hear that she had passed.

So sorry to hear about Mrs Frankie. She lived near my family for many years. She also took care of my daughter after school for a few years. If I ever needed anything at the school concerning my children she always put me in touch with the correct person and was gracious. She was a great lady. Rise high ❤️🙏
