“ Uncle George will be missed by so many. I think the biggest thing I will miss is the way he joke around and was always always smiling. No matter where he was how he felt he was always smiling and had to joke around. I’m going to miss him even if I didn’t see him even day it’s the days and the memories that could have been made that I’m going to miss. But I’m going to cherish the memories I have of Uncle George and the love I have in my heart and will let him live on threw the memories. I love you Uncle George. You may be gone but never forgotten.
