“ Aunt Sederis, Angela, Freddie, where do I begin? Uncle Fred was loved my all. I will never forget the times and many conversations that he and I had together about God only knows what, from sports to politics to what was going on in the world. He had his unique perspective on things. Plus his unforgettable laugh. Always enjoyed hearing him play music, too. Hard to believe that I have no uncles left, but that is what happens. We all face that eventually. He will be missed, but I look at it this way: Heaven's band just got a little louder. Bet that he and PaPa Miller (George) have the angels square dancing by now. Love you, Uncle Fred.
