“ She was my neighbor when I lived on South Main Street in Salisbury, NC. We were both going to Wiley Elementary School; she was in the third grade, and I was in the first grade. She was a really nice little girl and a good playmate. Never know what happened to her after her family moved. Found this obituary by accident, and I am so sorry she is no longer living. I just hope she had a full and wonderful life; she deserved it.
