“ Jackie, I know that you're moved on. I also know that you were loved by many that are missing you already. I remember our childhood and how we were worry free always laughing and playing while our mothers and grandmother's were in. the kitchen. We had a special connection that I will treasure always. Till I see you again, Mike Jones.

“ We never met in person but had been friends online for nearly a decade through our shared appreciation for the music of one artist. I know Jackie had her struggles, but she had the strength to keep fighting her way forward, which I respected so much. My heart goes out to her surviving family as they have lost her brother and father before and to have the added grief of now losing Jackie is a heavy load on the heart.
