“ Worked with James at the mill for years. Always had a joke and a smile. Haven't seen him in awhile but thought of him often. What a nice man and a great crane operator. I will never forget him and what he taught me in the woodyard when I was just a baby. Rest well James, you deserve it..

No more pain, no more suffering. Grandpa is with his Savior and Ms. Sue. Two great losses to our world and all that knew them... we will miss you deeply but we will see you again.
Beth, Brandon, I know that this is a very difficult time for you, your loved ones and all who knew and loved "Grandpa and "Ms. Sue." May the Lord wrap His loving arms around you, comfort you, give you peace and strength for today and the coming days ahead. I pray that all the beautiful memories of your parents that you hold near and dear to your heart brings joy to your hearts as you continue to remember your wonderful parents.
