“ To my sweet dear friend, only God knows how much I miss you. The making you laugh, talking junk to each other, you having a million jobs and projects for me to do 😭, to riding on the golf cart, or just sitting on the porch watching the fish swim in the lake....i miss it all. The bond we created was definitely one to cherish forever and I'll always hold you dear to my heart. You were more than just my friend, you were my dad when my real dad left and I'll always be grateful to you for everything. Mr. Gregory, I know you're walking all over heaven right now, visiting family and friends and catching up with a few buddies...if you happen to come across my dad will you tell him I love & miss him too. This one truly hurts but I know you're in a much better place. No more nurse visits, doctor calls, medicine to take, and no more struggles.....although I miss you down here I know you're watching over us up there. Take care my sweet friend, until we meet again on the other side, know that I miss you and love you dearly. Forever and always, your Janet 🍷

My Dear Gregory family, I didn't know about the loss of Jessie but I'm in Greenwood. I'm Mary Gillian Lomax. Earle's daughter, Lula Gregory Gillian was my sweet grandmother. Unfortunately, the only time that U ever saw Jessie or his mom, Eva was when I was about 5 years old in 1968. My granny n papa took me to visit one Sunday with them. Jessie was in a leg cast from a wreck. I was so shy that I hid behind my grannys' dress . She almost got me with a stick. My granny n papa got unable to visit later and we got grown. I do so miss not getting to know my Gregory family. I would have loved to hear family stories through the years. I join in sorry about Jessie's loss.
