“ I have many memories of Rhinehart. Looked forward to his chocolate milk and honey bun. We used to listen to old country music while we did things. He liked his music. Had a good heart and sometimes a little stubborn if you rowled him up. We had so many laughs. Like gut busting laughs where he spewed his coffee. Especially when Rodney came around. They'd argue and cut up. It was the highlight of my mornings after some nights. I'm sure he will be missed by many. So very sorry for your loss, Donna and family. Love you
