“ Much of my early married life was spent in close proximity to my husbands wonderful Aunts. They were one and all beautiful, loving, generous women. Many an afternoon I spent at Aunt Loretta's kitchen table talking and sharing a cup of coffee. We laughed and did all those things that women friends do that bond them together forever; even when they are later far apart. I made her country ruffled curtains for her living room which she never failed to mention when we reunited throughout the past 40 years. I have loved and respected Aunt Loretta and always will. Her gentle heart and her devotion to Gods Word was always to be admired. I know without any hesitation that Aunt Loretta is in the presence of her Lord and Savior. Penny Lawrece
