“ Miss Fay and May Parkman were fixtures at my home church for as long as I can remember. Always involved with the life of the community, even as time went on, one always expected to see the Misses May and Fay. I was so sorry to read this but the Lord has received a faithful hardworking member for the heavenly family.

“ I was one of the fortunate people to have taught with May. We became friends and had a wonderful time along with others enjoying activities outside of school. She was a dear lady with a beautiful heart. Praying for Fay and her family now as they say their goodbyes.
