Margaret Mitchell Griffith

Margaret Mitchell Griffith, 91, passed away on September 6, 2022, at Saluda Nursing and Rehab Center. She was the daughter of the late Ernest and Joanna Mitchell. Margaret was predeceased by her sister Mary Louise Highsmith.

Margaret was born in Raleigh, NC, on April 11, 1931. She attended the public schools of Raleigh until her family moved to Saluda when she was 11 years old. Margaret attended and graduated from Saluda schools in 1948. After graduation she attended Furman University for two years. In 1950, she married Jefferson Davis Griffith, Jr. After their marriage she attended the University of South Carolina. Margaret and Jack lived in Columbia until his graduation from the University of South Carolina School of Law in 1952. They then moved to Saluda, where they made Saluda their home for the next 71 years.

Affectionately known as "G," Margaret dedicated her life to her family. While at home, whether washing clothes, cooking, or helping her children, she always had music playing from the cabinet stereo. Her love of music continued throughout her life. G was a faithful and devoted wife. As a mother, she was loving, kind, compassionate and affectionate. Additionally, she was giving and forgiving. These are the attributes that she encouraged her children to attain.

Margaret was a member of St. Paul United Methodist Church. She was a member of the J.N. DeLoache Sunday school class. She also taught children's Sunday school classes as well as Bible school. She was a girl scout leader and participated in the garden club. G was a charter member of the Wednesday Bridge club.

Margaret is survived by her husband of 72 years, Jack Griffith. G is also survived by her children: Lynn Anderson (Van, deceased), Jeff (Avis) Griffith, Julia (Glenn) White, and Mitchell (Cathryn) Griffith, Grandchildren: Meg (Blake) Davis, Nancy (Jeffrey) Jordan, Elizabeth (Casey) Kimm, Jay (Michelle) Griffith, Roger White, Laura Mims, Jack (Katie) Griffith, Madeline Griffith, MacMillan Griffith, Great-grandchildren: Heidi (Adam) Tuttle, Emily Davis and Erica Davis, Nyla, Natalie, and Nora Jordan, Winnie Mims, Callie and Maddie Kimm, Gisele Griffith, Great-great grandchild: Jack Davis Tuttle. Many thanks to Saluda Nursing and Rehab Center, administration and staff and Dr. Ralph Riley. Also, a special thanks to G's caregivers: Terri Riddle, Carlie Gabbard, Natalie Rikard, Jeannie Hughes, Lucille Mims, Lenora Springs, Rachel Rose, and Donna Mills.

Memorials may be made to: St. Paul United Methodist Church-Family Life Center or Backpack Ministry, 102 East Butler Avenue Saluda, SC 29138 or Saluda Nursing Center-PO Box 398 Saluda, SC 29138. The family will receive friends at the home of Lynn Anderson. The funeral service will be held on Friday, September 9, at 4:00 pm at St. Paul United Methodist Church, Saluda, SC.

“ Jack, my love to you and your family. Margaret was a lovely lady. I loved her and remember the good ol' days when Larry and I had the pleasure of eating lunch with the two of you. May God bless you and comfort you. Love -Anne Harmon

“ What a wonderful lady she was. I met her and Jack years ago at Chick-Fil-A in Lexington. They would visit on Wednesdays and Saturdays. She always brightened my days and we laughed. She taught me how to make her peach jam and I will cherish all our time together. I visited her numerous times in the nursing home. She was a joy to be around. She was part of my extended family and will be greatly missed. Prayers and love to all the family.
