“ David, my apologies, no of our family let me know of Aunt Margaret's passing. I am so sorry. Aunt Margaret was a special person and we all loved her. I hope you are doing well. You were a good son to her and I'm sure you have no regrets, you did everything you could for her and more. All my love and prayers to you. And may God give you the strength and peace you need for now and for the future. Take care.
