“ Larry,

Margaret and I are so very sorry at this time of sorrow surrounding your mother's death. I was so very glad to finally meet the remarkable woman who was your mother at the engagement party last fall! I enjoyed speaking with her and telling her what a fine son she raised and the pleasure of knowing you and Sheila and your daughters over the years. Margaret and I are thinking of you and Sheila and all your family at this time and hoping that the very good memories of a life well lived will soon replace the sorrow of this time.
