Mary Sue Smith

Graveside service for Mary Sue Jones Smith of Saluda will be held at 10:00 AM Sunday, July 26 at Rosemont Cemetery in Newberry.

Mrs. Smith, 86, died July, 23, 2020 after a long illness. Born in Saluda, she was the daughter of the late Thurmond Padgett and Georgie Huit Berry Jones. She is survived by her daughters, Kim (Baron) Buzhardt of Saluda and Joy (Sean) Foley of Columbia and a granddaughter, Maddy Foley of Columbia. She is predeceased by her husband of 48 years, Max Edward Smith, and her sister Bobbie Polk.

While Max was serving in the Air Force, they lived in Germany and several different states before he retired. She worked as a bookkeeper at the Newberry Observer before marrying and was the bookkeeper for Smith Electric Motor Repair in later years. She was known for her skill at sewing and knitting. She also enjoyed writing, drawing and poetry. In recent years she worked on writing her life story, a book which was self-published in 2019. She was a member of the Newberry Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, where she held various leadership positions throughout the years.

She particularly loved the young girls she taught as a Merry Miss leader. She was also a member of Clemson Extension Homemakers (FCL).

Memorials may be made to Compassionate Care Hospice (100 Ashland Park Lane, Suite B, Columbia, SC 29210).

“ My sweet Sue. I remember us sitting side by side watching some of her favorite TV shows and talking all about her life and Max's life in the Air Force.. she would tell me all kinds of storys about Kim and Joy... her story she told the most was about Maddy and her dad.. one day sitting out side Maddys dad walked to the little pond behind her house and come back and said Maddy I got you something it was a snake... she said Maddy let that snake go all over her head and nake and Mis. Sue said Maddy your not child of mine.. we would giggle about it due to she knew I had two snakes of my own. And she would love telling me story's about Kim and Joy and the trips they made together.. I will miss you my sweet Sue I love you.. get them Wing and fly..
