“ When I was 19, Nita and I had our 12' X 47' blue and white Park Avenue mobile home towed to J.W. Hendrix's mobile home park on Dew Avenue in West Columbia about one mile from Milie's house.

Immediately Milie became another mother to my charming young son Chris. Her support was invaluable to young parents.

She had always been a career woman role model for Nita. In direct and indirect ways she inspired both of us.

I miss her friendship, warmth, and steadiness. She was a champ of a human being and I am glad I had a chance to know her.

“ *Everbody should have an aunt like Milie.
So many memories of the way she could make you feel important from a child to a senior citizen.
Our Thoughts and Prayers are with her family.
