“ I know it's taken me long enough.. Just can't wrap my head around this. I've loved you since before you were born. We didn't always fight. Once upon a time I was your entire world. You were my baby. Momma's boy❤️ As I sit here empty and broken without you, I wonder if... Doesn't matter though. I can't change any of it. So I remember all the time I had with you. 29 years! Hell or high water you were and always will be my baby boy. God I miss you ❤️ Til I see you again. Ily

“ We spent a lot of time together over the years, it's probably safe to say we were closer to brothers than cousins, this is a devastating loss, but I know he's at peace now. I love you bro, and I'll see you again soon enough 💙
