“ I did not ever meet Mrs. Temples. I have been blessed by her love towards her family members. I have the pleasure of knowing her granddaughter Dalene. Through her convictions and love for friends and family, has to be richly instilled by her parents and grandparents. Find strength in prayer, Psalms 23, and family time. “ To the family, "Grandma", as I called her, was the most sweetest lady I have ever known. Always a kind word, funny story, and knowledge beyond anyone I have known. She will be greatly missed down here, but am sure she's singing alto in Heaven with the angels. Love you all. John Bennett.
