Visitation will be on Friday evening, February 14 from 5-7 PM at Ramey Funeral Home. Her service will be held at St. Paul United Methodist Church on Saturday, February 15 at 2 PM with burial to follow at Travis Park Cemetery.

Patsy was born on May 8, 1931 and adopted as an infant into the family of Lizzie and Arno DeLoach. She was predeceased by her parents and husband of 61 years, Thomas William Quattlebaum. She is survived by her three daughters, Pamela Q. Combs (Don) of Norfolk, Virginia; Anne Q. DuRant (Bruce) of Charleston, S.C.; and Patricia Q. Kirtley (Chris) of Chapin, S.C. and seven grandchildren, Kathryn D. Rogers (Travis) of Amsterdam, The Netherlands; Cole Combs of Washington, D.C.; Douglas DuRant of Seattle, Washington; Ford Combs of Manassas, Virginia; Sydney M. Mitchell (Cole) of Chapin, S.C.; Addison Menger of Chapin, S.C. and Steven Kirtley of Nashville, Tennessee. She also is survived by her brothers and sisters in law and their families, Frances Q. Cogburn; Melvin (Bubba) Quattlebaum; Randolph and Pat Quattlebaum; Jim and Norma Quattlebaum; Cephia Quattlebaum; and Cindy Quattlebaum and by cousins Annelle Minick and Brenda Rickenbacker and their families.

Mrs. Quattlebaum graduated from Saluda High School in 1949 and attended

Winthrop College. She and Tom were married in 1950 and made their home in Saluda. Patsy served as accountant and bookkeeper for Tom's business, Quattlebaum Heating and Air Conditioning and was an officer with First Citizens Bank for over 20 years retiring in 1996. She was a near life-long member of St. Paul United Methodist Church and enjoyed her church circle serving ably for many years. She loved bridge and her bridge friends. She faithfully played in at least two clubs until illness prevented her hosting or attending the games. She insisted just last month that she hoped to return to play in a week or two when she was feeling a little better. She loved to read and after retirement from the bank, enjoyed always having a good book at hand. She completed her daily crossword puzzles often challenging other family members with her accuracy. She was an avid card and board gamer and as the kids would say – GMom always wins!

Patsy wished to thank her family and friends for their faithful and loving support throughout her last few months. She and her family appreciated her compassionate daily care givers, Nivea Hill, Lenora Springs, and recently Marasia Graham, as well as, for the services provided by Hospice of South Carolina during her final days.

Gifts in Patsy's honor and memory may be directed to St. Paul United Methodist Church, 102 East Butler Avenue, Saluda, S.C. 29138 or to a charity of your choice.

“ Patsy Q was G Ma to me. She was one of the warmest people I've ever known and there was always laughter when she was around. She had a way of beating you over and over again in cards without making you feel bad. We'd play rummy and she'd lay her cards down saying, "Well... I think... Now that's gin, isn't it?", as if she didn't know she'd won. She was a crossword master too. She'd be working on a puzzle and read you clue and say, "I believe that's ____, one of those archaic words." She knew all sorts of words like that. She'd tell you to "scotch" the door or call you a "handsome cuss."

I'll miss grandmom a lot. She was very special and I'll always hold my memories of her close. Love you grandmom.

“Mrs. Patsy. What a mainstay she was for my mother, Monika. She was a regular for decades at my mom's salon, Belle Dame Beauty Shop. Mom always referred to customers such as Mrs. Patsy as her "bread and butter" because she came on a consistent, frequent basis. She was indeed a faithful customer. To say that we appreciated her business is an understatement. She and other customers like her helped to put me through college debt-free! So, do I even need to say that I appreciated her faithful patronage?

More importantly, Mrs. Patsy was such an outgoing and thoughtful person. I was privileged to have gotten to have seen her at my mom's beauty salon several times throughout the course of my life. The crossing of our paths was usually coincidental, but desirable nonetheless. We often conversed. She was very engaging for a conversation. Her congenial smile had such a calming effect and served as an effective "ice breaker." She was quite a socialite.

Furthermore, Mrs. Patsy showed so much genuine interest in my mom's grandchildren. I recall her giving gifts to my mom for the grandchildren. She often included a short, hand-written note with the gift, too. What thoughtfulness!

Although I have not seen Mrs. Patsy in well over a decade, I know I will miss her (as will many other people who were privileged to have spent time in her presence). The fact that I can still remember her so well, despite the double-digit number of years that have passed since I was last in her company, serves as evidence of the profound effect she had on my family.

Thank you for many wonderful years and many precious memories, Mrs. Patsy!!
