Peggy Cockrell

Peggy Whatley Cockrell, 78, died on Tuesday, October 10, 2023, at Saluda Nursing Center.

She was born at the home place in Kirksey of Greenwood County on January 28, 1945, a daughter of the late Pope Payne Whatley, Sr. and Vera Hollingsworth Whatley.

Ms. Cockrell previously worked in the textile mill and the former Parkman's Pharmacy, before retiring at Tidwell Jewelers, where she found much joy.

Ms. Cockrell was known for helping others when she was able. She thoroughly enjoyed outdoor activities, yardwork, flower gardening, and spending time with her family and friends.

She is survived by a son, Brian Keith Cockrell of Saluda; grandson, Brandon Keith Cockrell of Lexington; a sister, Irma Medlock of Greenwood; and a brother, J.B. Whatley (Dot) of Cayce.

In addition to her parents, she is predeceased by a sister, Helen Banes, and four brothers, Alfred Whatley, Paul Whatley, Payne Whatley, and Eugene Whately.

“ Keith and Brandon,

There is nothing to say to ease the loss of a mother and grandmother. Just know that you are in the thoughts and prayers of so many friends at this difficult time. Your dedication to her care during her illness was exceptional She was so lucky to have had you by her side. Be comforted by your sweet memories. They are the legacy of love. Praying God will shower you and your family with his strength and guidance in the days ahead.
