“ Randy was a good man. I never saw him when he did not give me a caring and friendly smile. Joy, when you marry a man you know that you love him. But after most of your adult life spent as his wife, you can not fathom the amount that that love has grown and deepen until you must part. I am thinking of you and I love you.

“ Randy was a good friend. I have such fond memories of our early teen years: swimming pool, riding bikes, camping out, eating at the truck stop and staying over at the Hyler's. I was hoping to spend some time with Randy in retirement. Maybe we can reconnect on the other side. May God bless the family as you remember Randy. "Nicky" Long
