“ Ron Armstrong and I have known each other since 1982 when we checked in together at the Coast Guard Marine Inspection Office in New Orleans. We spent many wonderful days together fishing and hunting. He was truly my best friend and Coast Guard brother. He will be deeply missed. Joe Evans

I remember fishing with my dad and Mr Joe on one of the branches of the Pearl River. It was an all nighter which was truly an amazing time. I sat in the bow of the vee bottom, dad amidships, and Mr Joe at the helm. A lot of spotlight action was needed to avoid trees, the banks, and alligators. Thank you Mr Joe for being a lifelong friend to my dad. He spoke of you and your family with great affection and fondness. You were family to him and he respected you greatly.

“ Mr. Ron was a great guy to know and a good friend to my dad. Enjoyed the times of getting together and fishing with them both. Still to this day, about 35 years later, vividly remember the time we were all fishing in the bayou and he caught a fish on one side of the boat, that he said was too small to keep, turned around and cast that same fish on the other side of the boat as bait and caught one about 4 times that size as soon as it hit the water. Never seen anything like that!! You will be missed Ron.
