“ Sending thoughts and prayers. May all your wonderful memories carry you through the difficult days off loss. Beverly

“ We had the high honor and privilege to minister many times at Faith Temple over four decades and she rarely missed a service. If she was not present, everyone had to know what was wrong. She fed us, and multitudes more, more times than can be remembered. She faithfully led her Sunday School class to class and back into the sanctuary Sunday after Sunday. The investment of her spiritual knowledge and Christian values in decades of generations is of eternal value and recorded in God's book of remembrance. Her wit and grace were ever-present but her love of God and faithfulness to His Word were never absent. The touch of her hand, the twinkle in her eye, the tenderness of her heart and the toughness of her resolve to press on will be missed. Our friend, God's faithful one, has endured to the end of this life and entered into the beginning of her eternal life in the presence of the Lord. She blessed us with her love and deeds but has left us her testimony. Her fruit remains in her faithfulness. May God comfort the family and friends daily is our prayer.
