“ Nicole always made the best out of any situation she was in. She worked hard for everything she had. Her laughter was infectious and she was never afraid to be herself and live in the moment. She tried so hard to make a better life for Trista, Terrah Belle, Cole, Eriole, and Madeline. All my love.

“ Nicole was a very special person and a pure joy to anyone who was blessed to have her in their lives. I met her through my husband Eddie Morgan about 5 years ago. We were in the very beginning of our relationship and I was about 4 months pregnant. That was the toughest time on our relationship and Nicole was really there for us. I will never forget going over to their house and hanging out for hours. Just talking to Nicole and sitting on the edge of her bed. At the time I didn't really know her that well but she just had something about her that made me feel like I could talk to her about anything. This is a tragic loss. She will forever live on in our hearts and we will always cherish the memories. Prayers to all of her family and friends. RIP Nicole. I love you. And we will all miss your silliness and honesty. You were one of the real ones.

“ I was devastated to see the news. I knew Sarah through work years ago and even though we didn't talk too much after we both left the place, she was a joy to see and talk with. We would randomly bump into each other at a store or restaurant fairly often and talk for a bit. I always enjoyed talking with her and she was quite nice to me and everyone around. Thank you for being so kind to me at Hardee's and always bringing a fun, infectious attitude with you. I'll miss seeing you, you will be greatly missed!
