“ Sylvia was an only child, but she loved her cousins like her sisters and brothers. She was the bond that held us together & shared the milestones of our lives with each other. She never forgot a holiday or birthday and delighted in our happiness & joy. Sylvia was such a kind, giving person and will be sorely missed our family.

Her suffering is over & she has found eternal peace. My love to Peanut, Lonnie, Clay and their families.

Sylvia was so much more than our cousin, more like a sister. She was the glue that held us all together, always staying in touch with her cousins. I will miss her phone calls and me calling her. We had some wonderful trips, especially the cruise to Alaska and the train ride from Anchorage to Fairbanks. My love and prayers go out to Peanut, Lonnie, Clay and their families. I will miss Sylvia so much. Wanda Motes
