“ So sorry about Mrs. Vivian. Just heard that she passed away. She was my yard sale buddy. She loved to go to yard sales and so do I. In later years when she could not get around too good she would sit down and I would take things to her so she could see them. I will miss her. Brenda Tucker

“ My dad remembers Vivian and her brothers, sisters, and parents. I have often heard him mention Coke and Eva Bradley, and how their sons were such good playmates...J.W., Virgil, James, and Harold and my dad would climb trees and hunt squirrels. He said Vivian was much younger than him. (He's 97 and checks the obits daily for Saluda friends.)

His name is Hugh Berry, and his family's property backed up to the Bradleys.

Our hearts go out to all of you. She's a beautiful lady, and Daddy said she's having a homecoming in Heaven. Jill Berry Sinclair for Hugh W. Berry
