“ I certainly never expected to lose the first niece I ever had. I expected to see more of you since I now live in SC..... and I HAVE. But it wasn't enough.... Never enough.

You've certainly soldiered through more than most people experience or can handle. A lot of people's lives are better for having you in them... me included.

I will always love and miss you

“ Gone way too soon.. she was always smiling and such a wonderful and sweet woman. Always would speak every time you seen her. I Lived right down the road from her for years and she was apart of the family as her daughter Haley married into the family. You all are in our thoughts and prayers and we are so sorry for your loss.
